Accident at Benning Crossing.

A peculiar accident occurred at the Benning crossing of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad yesterday, A wagon loaded with sand was driven across the loaded with sand was driven across the track by Geo. Edelin when it was struck by ensine No. 130 and completely demolished. The driver escaped uninjured, though the horses received a few scratches. The wagon and the horses were the property of J. W. Burge, No. 1243 N. Street northwest. The gates at the crossing were not down at the fime.

The small colored boy who was arrested by Bicycle Policeman Estes Tuesday night on suspicion, proved to be the boy who burglarized the room at Meyer's Hotel that was occupied by W. C. Osborn. Mr. Omborn reported to the police several days ago that he had lost a sliver watch and eight dollars in money. The watch was recovered and Mr. Osborn called at headquarters and identified it last night. The boy, who gave the name of Howard White, said that he had bought the watch from an unknown man for seventyfive cents. Afterward, when cornered by the detectives, he confessed that he had stolen the watch and said he had gotten Meyer's Hotel, where it was lying on the
